Exton Advisors · Monday, March 18th, 2024

Matt is an English law qualified, former private practice disputes lawyer with a wealth of experience in litigation funding.

Having trained and practised as a litigator at a global business law firm from 2015, Matt has a strong background in international dispute resolution with a particular focus on commercial, corporate, energy and natural resources and fraud disputes.

Since switching to a career in litigation funding in 2020, Matt has brought all of his prior experience to bear in roles covering all aspects of the funding process from origination to execution. Matt's skill set includes legal and financial due diligence, structuring of litigation funding agreements, price modelling and business development.

Matt also has particular experience with law firm portfolio structures and the working dynamics that can arise between law firms, funders and claimants.

Matt is a regular speaker, thought leader and published author in the litigation finance space and is one of Lawdragon's Global 100 Leaders in Litigation Finance.
