The Recoverability of Funding Costs in Arbitration

Tom Steindler · Thursday, March 21st, 2024

On 27th April, we were delighted to host a roundtable discussion exploring the “Recoverability of Third-Party Funding Costs in Arbitration”.

Many thanks again to Manish Aggarwal (Three Crowns LLP), Philippa Charles (Twenty Essex),

Alejandro I Garcia (Stewarts), Camilla Godman FCIArb (Omni Bridgeway), James Leabeater KC (4 Pump Court), Cameron Murphy (Profile Investment), Samantha Rowe (Debevoise & Plimpton) and Daniel Spendlove (Signature Litigation) for your participation and insightful contribution to the discussion.

Download the paper below where we cover:

- Legal developments and the status quo
- Key factors driving whether funding costs will be recoverable
- Practical insights from leading arbitration lawyers, litigation funders and an arbitrator
- The potential for future changes in policy and practice
- Practical steps which can be taken to optimise a claimant's chances of recovery
